student activity 1 how did you get here?

Name_	Date
So So em	roughout history, people have immigrated to new parts of the world for various reasons me families seek out a new location to escape war, persecution or natural disasters. me families seek out new locations because of better opportunities in education and aployment. Each of us have a unique history of how we came to live here. What is yours? you are not sure, give it your best guess!)
1.	Where in the world is your family from?
2.	When did your family move to the United States?
3.	Do you know why your family moved to the United States? If yes, explain! If not, make an educated guess and ask your family tonight!
4.	What is your immigrant generation? (Hint: If you or your parents immigrated to America, you are a FIRST generation American. If your grandparents immigrated to America, you are SECOND generation American, etc.)
